Understanding COVID-19's impact on Employment and Training Programs

Project Title	Understanding COVID-19's impact on Employment and Training Programs
Project Summary	Survey state/local workforce agencies and other grant recipients on operational strategies under COVID-19, highlighting best practices as a way to better inform and increase engagement amongst workforce practitioners. Assist in improving internal tools for assessing workforce development systems.
Country	United States

Project Description

Understand the impact of COVID-19 and how States/Territories within the Dallas and San Francisco Regional Office jurisdictions are approaching operations and service delivery in the COVID-19 environment.

Learn about the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act and its program elements in order to assist in developing/refining internal/external tools for workforce practitioners in operationalizing and assessing workforce development systems.

Survey States/Territories on impact of COVID-19 and how this has changed operations and service delivery. Document implementation strategies and best practices as a tool with for informing the larger workforce system and increasing engagement amongst workforce practitioners.

Expand on existing contact databases.

Other duties as assigned.

For the 2020-2021 semesters, we are looking for 2 virtual intern(s).

Required Skills or Interests

Skill(s)
Analytical writing
Data analysis
Design thinking
Editing and proofreading

Research
Survey / polling design
Writing

Additional Information

The U.S. Department of Labor, Employment and Training Administration's (ETA) vision is to promote pathways to economic liberty for individuals and families working to achieve the American Dream. On behalf of American taxpayers, the Employment and Training Administration will administer effective programs that have at their core the goals of enhanced employment opportunities and business prosperity.

In addition to the Washington D.C. office, ETA operates in six regional offices throughout the nation. This project provides an opportunity to work with staff in the San Francisco and Dallas Regional Offices and the States/Territories within their jurisdictions. For more information on ETA please go to:https://www.dol.gov/agencies/eta/

Language Requirements

None